HENRY KISSINGER CALLS FOR NEW WORLD ORDER UNDER TRUMP

Oval Office
October 10, 2017

11:48 A.M. EDT

THE PRESIDENT:

Thank you very much. Henry Kissinger has been a friend of mine. I've liked him, I've respected him. But we've been friends for a long time, long before my emergence in the world of politics, which has not been too long.

But we have been really in, I guess you'd say, the New York scene a little bit -- but we got to know each other very well. He's a man I have great, great respect for. He's also somebody -- usually I say, "Have you ever been in the Oval Office?"

And with Henry Kissinger, I didn't bother asking that question because he has been in this office many, many times.

But it's an honor to have Dr. Kissinger with us, a man of immense talent, and experience, and knowledge. And I'm going to talk to him for a while, and we're going to learn a lot. But I can say from a world standpoint and with many of the countries that Henry and I would talk about before the election -- because I would talk with Henry before the election -- we've made a lot of progress with many of them. We have some outstanding, and we'll handle that as we have to handle it.

But we've made a lot of progress in the Middle East with ISIS and so many other things. It's a much calmer place. But, Henry, I say often, I inherited a mess, but we're fixing it.

So you may want to say something. And thank you for being here, Henry. Thank you very much.

DR. KISSINGER:

Mr. President, I didn't expect this opportunity.

It's always a great honor to be in this office, and I'm here at a moment when the opportunity to build a constructive, peaceful world order is very great.

And the President is leaving on a trip to Asia, which I think will make a big contribution to progress and peace and prosperity. Thank you for inviting me.

THE PRESIDENT:

Thank you very much, Henry. I appreciate it.

KENITE OCCUPIED ISRAEL AND THE UNITED STATES WITHDRAW FROM UNESCO

PRESS TV, 10/12/17
(EXCERPT)

The United States has announced that it will withdraw from the United Nations Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), accusing the UN's cultural organization of "anti-Israel bias."

US State Department spokeswoman Heather Nauert said in a statement on Thursday that Washington would establish an "observer mission" to replace its representation at the Paris-based agency.

UNESCO, which has 195 member states, is known for designating world heritage sites such as Syria's Palmyra, the Grand Canyon in the US state of Arizona and 22 sites in Iran.

The head of UNESCO Irina Bokova voiced "profound regret" over the US decision, calling it a "loss to multilateralism."

The US also withdrew from the organization in 1984 during the administration of former US President Ronald Regan, claiming it was biased in favor of the former Soviet Union.

Former US President George W. Bush rejoined UNESCO in 2002. The US stopped funding the body in 2011, after the organization accepted Palestine as a member.

US President Donald Trump is also reportedly considering withdrawing the United States from the Geneva-based UN Human Rights Council (UNHRC), which his administration accuses of being biased against Israel.

THE ENDGAME OF THE GLOBALISTS

The Last Page of The Grand Chessboard by Zbigniew Brzezinski

In brief, the U.S. policy goal must be unapologetically twofold: to perpetuate America's own dominant position for at least a generation and preferably longer still; and to create a geopolitical framework that can absorb the inevitable shocks and strains of social-political change while evolving into the geopolitical core of shared responsibility for peaceful global management. A prolonged phase of gradually expanding cooperation with key Eurasian partners, both stimulated and arbitrated by America, can also help to foster the preconditions for an eventual upgrading of the existing and increasingly antiquated UN structures. A new distribution of responsibilities and privileges can then take into account the changed realities of global power, so drastically different from those of 1945.

These efforts will have the added historical advantage of benefiting from the new web of global linkages that is growing exponentially outside the more traditional nation-state system. That web—woven by multinational corporations, NGOs (nongovernmental organizations, with many of them transnational in character) and scientific communities and reinforced by the Internet—already creates an informal global system that is inherently congenial to more institutionalized and inclusive global cooperation.

In the course of the next several decades, a functioning structure of global cooperation, based on geopolitical realities, could thus emerge and gradually assume the mantle of the world's current "regent," which has for the time being assumed the burden of responsibility for world stability and peace. Geostrategic success in that cause would represent a fitting legacy of America's role as the first, only, and last truly global superpower.

EDITOR'S NOTE:

There will be no 'New World Order' until Satan and his angels are cast from Heaven to Earth.

You will find The Blueprint of The One World Political System in Daniel Chapter 7:

The Lion is symbolic of The Christian Nations, The Bear is symbolic of The Non-Christian Nations, The Leopard is symbolic of The Four Hidden Dynasties of The Kenites (Education, Economics, Politics and Religion) and, last but not least, Daniel's Fourth Beast is exclusively supernatural (Satan and his Fallen Angels).

The supernatural ingredient has to be here on Earth before The One World Political System emerges at The Woe of The Fifth Trumpet at the beginning of The Five Month Long Hour of Temptation.

This 'New World Order' will receive a Deadly Wound after which Satan will appear in Jerusalem as Antichrist.

This happens at The Sixth Seal, The Sixth Trumpet and The Sixth Vial in the middle of The Five Months and the One World Political System will then become a One World Religious System.
