POLITICS

THE GATEWAY DRUG TO 666

Before Satan appears as the false christ in Jerusalem at the 6th seal, the 6th trumpet and the 6th vial, the one world political system must first emerge at the woe of the 5th trumpet when Satan and his angels are cast to earth. Only then does the so-called "new world order" come into being having seven heads (symbolic of the seven continents of the planet earth meaning it will be a global political system) and ten horns (symbolic of the ten fallen angel kings cast out of heaven with Satan and the rest of his angels at the beginning of the hour of temptation.)

After the one world political system emerges at the woe of the 5th trumpet it will be 'wounded to death' (as we know from Revelation 13:3) after which Satan will appear as the antichrist and the one world political system becomes a one world religious system.

Those who have allowed themselves to become brainwashed into actively participating in the left/right paradigm of the hidden dynasty of politics are being set up to actively participate in the one world political system once it comes into being at the woe of the 5th trumpet.

The word politics comes from the Greek word "politika" which means "the affairs of the city" (See Strong's #G4172). A strong clue as to the identity of those who control the Hegelian left/right paradigm. Who was the first person to build a city in the Bible? Enumerate the stones worn smooth as it becomes more and more difficult to tell the difference between politics and religion.

EDITOR'S NOTE:

There will be no 'new world order' until Satan and his angels are cast to earth at the woe of the fifth trumpet at the beginning of the five month long hour of temptation. Only then does the one world political system written of in Revelation 13 come into being which then receives a 'deadly wound' after which Satan appears as the false christ and it becomes a one world religious system at the woe of the sixth trumpet. The True Christ will not return until immediately after the five month long hour of temptation at the woe of the seventh trumpet.

ZIOCON HIJACKED U.S. OPPOSES UNITED NATIONS GOLAN RESOLUTION

REUTERS

(EXCERPT)

The United States opposed on Friday for the first time an annual draft resolution at the United Nations calling on (Kenite occupied) Israel to rescind its authority in the occupied Golan Heights.

Despite the U.S. opposition, a U.N. General Assembly committee approved the draft resolution on Friday with 151 votes in favor and 14 abstentions. Only (Kenite occupied) Israel joined the United States in voting no. The General Assembly is due to formally adopt the resolution next month.

The U.S. ambassador to (Kenite occupied) Israel, David Friedman, said in September he expected Israel to keep the Golan Heights in perpetuity, in an apparent nod toward its claim of sovereignty over the territory.

'A prolonged phase of gradually expanding cooperation with key Eurasian partners, both stimulated and arbitrated by America, can also help to foster the preconditions for an eventual upgrading of the existing and increasingly antiquated UN structures. A new distribution of responsibilities and privileges can then take into account the changed realities of global power, so drastically different from those of 1945.'

"IT WILL BE A COLD WAR": APEC SUMMIT ENDS IN UNPRECEDENTED CHAOS AFTER DRAMATIC US-CHINA SHOWDOWN

By Tyler Durden, 11-19-18, Zero Hedge

(EXCERPT) One day after vice president Mike Pence and China's president Xi Jinping clashed after exchanging sharply worded barbs in a showdown between the two superpowers, on Sunday the annual Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation summit ended in unprecedented chaos and disarray, without agreement on a joint communique for the first time in its history as the escalating rivalry between the United States and China dominated proceedings and reflected escalating trade tensions.

Competition between the United States and China over the Pacific was also thrown into focus with the United States and its Western allies launching a coordinated response to China's Belt and Road program, Reuters added.

One diplomat told Reuters tension between the U.S. and China, bubbling all week, erupted when the Chinese government's top diplomat, Wang Yi, objected during a leaders' retreat to two paragraphs in a draft document seen by Reuters. One mentioned opposing "unfair trade practices" and reforming the WTO, while another concerned sustainable development.

"These two countries were pushing each other so much that the chair couldn't see an option to bridge them," said the unnamed diplomat. "China was angered that the reference to WTO blamed a country for unfair trade practices."

Sunday's dramatic conclusion was foreshadowed by accusations that Chinese officials had attempted to strong-arm officials in Papua New Guinea, which was hosting the event, into issuing a statement that fitted what Beijing wanted. The Chinese vigorously denied the claims. When asked about the impasse, Papua New Guinea's Prime Minister Peter O'Neill was quoted by the South China Morning Post saying:

"You know the two big giants in the room, so what can I say?"

Instead of issuing a document that all 21 participants could agree O'Neill, said he would issue a "chair's statement" reflecting the issues the participants did agree upon. The prime minister said the main area of disagreement was the insistence by one country — believed to be the US — that the communique would reflect the need for reform at the World Trade Organization.

O'Neill also said there had been disagreement on the bloc's so called "Bogor Goals", which require it to achieve free and open trade among its developing economies by 2020.

And while O'Neill said the differences on that issue had been ironed out, there was no such luck when it came to the topic of WTO reforms.

President Trump has previously threatened to pull out of the organisation, claiming that its rules unfairly favoured China.

O'Neill did not say which country objected to WTO reforms but added: "Apec has got no charter over World Trade Organisation. That is a fact. That matter can be raised at the World Trade Organisation."

China has said it broadly supports the WTO, while European Union proposals to reform the institution are expected to be tabled at the G20 summit in Argentina, where Trump and Xi are planning to meet in an effort to resolve their differences.

Additionally, Sunday's developments also came with a side plot, with China pushing back against accusations that its officials had tried to "barge" their way into the office of New Guinea's Foreign Minister Rimbink Pato in an attempt to influence the communique.

Citing three sources, a report by Agence France-Presse claimed that police had been called to turn the Chinese away.

But in a press conference on Sunday afternoon, senior foreign ministry official Wang Xiaolong said the reports were "simply not true", adding: "We are having close interactions
