PROBLEM REACTION SOLUTION

CNBC.com reported on 3-12-20 that the Federal Reserve will 'pump in more than $1 trillion in dramatic ramping up of market intervention amid coronavirus meltdown'

In his book Murder By injection, Eustace Mullins pointed out that 'During the Carter Administration, David Rockefeller generously sent his personal assistant, Paul Volcker, to Washington to head the Federal Reserve Board.'

That's not too many degrees of seperation from Brzezinski (Carter's National Security Advisor, co-creator of the Trilateral Commission with David Rockefeller) who provided the blueprint for the so-called 'new world order' (as far as how the United States would be used by the shadow government of the Kenites to create it is concerned) on the last page of his book The Grand Chessboard.

In an article on Brzezinski's Foreign Policy Perspective on China and Russia on the Global Research website, Michel Chossudovsky (Professor of Economics) wrote:

'While Brzezinski talks about "shared responsibility", "shared awareness" (with Russia and China), he was nonetheless firmly committed to the US imperial agenda.

His focus was to strategically secure US economic domination preferably without military confrontation and all out war.'

EDITOR'S NOTE:

There will be no 'new world order' until Satan and his angels are cast to earth at the woe of the fifth trumpet at the beginning of the five month long hour of temptation. Only then does the one world political system written of in Revelation 13 come into being which then receives a 'deadly wound' after which Satan appears as the false christ and it becomes a one world religious system at the woe of the sixth trumpet. The True Christ will not return until immediately after the five month long hour of temptation at the woe of the seventh trumpet.

US BLOCKS UN STATEMENT BACKING SYRIA CEASEFIRE: DIPLOMATS

(AFP, 3-6-20)

(EXCERPT)

United Nations (United States) (AFP) - The United States blocked the adoption of a UN Security Council statement Friday supporting a Syrian ceasefire brokered by Russia and Turkey, diplomats said following a closed-door meeting.

"It's premature," the United States said, rejecting the joint statement which Russia's ambassador to the UN, Vassily Nebenzia, had asked the other 14 member states to adopt, according to diplomats.

"Various countries took note and welcome the agreement," said Nebenzia. "But due to a position from one delegation, it was not possible."

Syria's war-ravaged Idlib province woke to relative calm Friday, its skies free of warplanes for the first day in months, following the ceasefire deal reached by Russia's President Vladimir Putin and his Turkish counterpart Recep Tayyip Erdogan.

'A prolonged phase of gradually expanding cooperation with key Eurasian partners, both stimulated and arbitrated by America, can also help to foster the preconditions for an eventual upgrading of the existing and increasingly antiquated UN structures. A new distribution of responsibilities and privileges can then take into account the changed realities of global power, so drastically different from those of 1945.'

BRZEZINSKI'S GHOST SHAPES WASHINGTON EURASIA GEOPOLITICS

F. WILLIAM ENGDAHL, NEW EASTERN OUTLOOK, 5-14-18

(EXCERPT) As Brzezinski pointed out, for American purposes of continued domination, it matters not that there are ethnic, religious and other differences between Russia, China and Iran. US foreign policy since September 2001 has increasingly forced those three to cooperate, despite those differences, for what they see as defense of their national sovereignty.

Target Russia...

Look at the recent events in light of the Brzezinski Eurasia warning of 1997.

Washington stood behind the UK in the bogus Skripal poisoning affair that was blamed, with no proof, on Russia. A fake chemical attack outside Damascus then was used as pretext for the illegal US bombing raid, ignoring all precepts of the UN Charter and international law.

That, in retrospect, was more of a test of possible Russian reaction. Whether or not US Tomahawk and other missiles hit or not, the precedent was set for (Kenite Occupied) Israel and other US allies to escalate attacks on Iran in Syria.

Then come diabolical new crippling sanctions against "Putin's oligarchs" such as Deripaski of Rusal, world's second largest aluminum producer. Washington doesn't even try to make up excuses for new sanctions. They state as reason that the Russian government is involved in "a range of malign activity around the globe."

Target China...

At the same time as Washington escalates pressure on Putin's Russia over Syria and Ukraine, they launch the early stage of what will clearly be a devastating economic war with China using trade as the initial lever. Washington, as I pointed out in a previous article, is aiming to force China to dismantle its strategy to bring China's economy over the next decade into leading status of hi tech producer. The strategy is called China 2025 and is the heart of the Xi Jinping strategic agenda and of his Belt Road Initiative or economic Silk Road project.

The first taste of what Washington plans to target China's move to become a high-tech world leader under China 2025 is the treatment of leading China telecomm maker ZTE and Huawei, major challengers of Apple. ZTE was sanctioned in April by Washington for allegedly selling telecommunications equipment to Iran. US suppliers have been banned from supplying essential components to the China tech group. The company has temporarily shut operations as it tries to win a reprieve from the US.

Target Iran...

Now, over the vehement protests of Germany and France and other EU states, Trump unilaterally tears up the Iran nuclear agreement. The aim is clearly to reimpose crippling sanctions again on Iran, disrupt the feeble progress that was begun since 2015.

The fact that the EU refuses to break its treaty agreement with Iran will be ultimately of little consequence as US sanctions on Iran also threaten with sanctions EU companies doing business in Iran.
