The Apocalypse Post

THE MAINSTREAM MEDIA IS NOT YOUR FRIEND

According to NYTIMES.com, As the United States withdraws from membership in the World Health Organization, the Trump administration will redirect $62 million still owed for this year's dues to other health-related causes also under United Nations auspices, State Department officials announced on Wednesday (September 2, 2020)

In the 2016 epilogue to his book The Grand Chessboard, Zbigniew Brzezinski (co-founder of the Trilateral Commission) wrote in the last paragraph that the world needs an America that 'seeks to develop a more multipolar world order.'

If the United Nations is what is keeping the unipolar globalist cabal in power then to identify the agents of the multipolar globalist cabal all we have to do is look at who has been systematically dismantling the United Nations these past four years.

An article published on ZeroHedge.com on April 19th, 2020 also pointed out the two warring factions of globalists.

'Whatever forces are behind the current spread of the coronavirus justifying the shutdown of major nations across the globe, one thing is increasingly certain: a new system will absolutely emerge from the currently collapsing one. What remains to be seen is whether this new system will be shaped by those fascist crisis-loving technocrats pushing for a unipolar world order, or whether it will be organized by sovereign nation states working together under a multi-polar community of principle.'

"Nation shall rise against nation" as in the goat fig nation shall rise against the goat fig nation which is how the United Nations will be 'broken' (see Daniel 8:8).

EDITOR'S NOTE:

There will be no 'new world order' until Satan and his angels are cast to earth at the woe of the fifth trumpet at the beginning of the five month long hour of temptation. Only then does the one world political system written of in Revelation 13 come into being which then receives a 'deadly wound' after which Satan appears as the false christ and it becomes a one world religious system at the woe of the sixth trumpet. The True Christ will not return until immediately after the five month long hour of temptation at the woe of the seventh trumpet.

Venezuela calls for a multipolar world on the UN's 75th anniversary

(Plenglish.com, 9-22-20)

(EXCERPT)

On September 21, 2020 Venezuela's President Nicolas Maduro stated that his country advocates a multipolar world and a renewed United Nations system, in which the peoples are respected.

According to Maduro, the nations face the challenge of 'building a multipolar world, where we all exist, we are respected, a world of balance' or allow a hegemonic, unipolar world to prevail.

It is the contradiction of the historic time, the multipolar world against the unipolar world. the world in its diversity, in its peace, in its cooperation, against the world of imperialism, the head of State emphasized.

"Latin America is absolutely one of the pillars of the multipolar world that is objectively being formed right now, and this pillar will make the future polycentric world order much more stable"
Sergei Lavrov, 9-1-20

'A prolonged phase of gradually expanding cooperation with key Eurasian partners, both stimulated and arbitrated by America, can also help to foster the preconditions for an eventual upgrading of the existing and increasingly antiquated UN structures. A new distribution of responsibilities and privileges can then take into account the changed realities of global power, so drastically different from those of 1945.'

THE CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC WILL FOREVER ALTER THE WORLD ORDER

By Henry A. Kissinger
April 3, 2020 6:30 pm ET
(The Wall Street Journal)

(EXCERPT)

Nations cohere and flourish on the belief that their institutions can foresee calamity, arrest its impact and restore stability. When the Covid-19 pandemic is over, many countries' institutions will be perceived as having failed.

Whether this judgment is objectively fair is irrelevant.

The reality is the world will never be the same after the coronavirus.

To argue now about the past only makes it harder to do what has to be done.

The coronavirus has struck with unprecedented scale and ferocity. Its spread is exponential:

U.S. cases are doubling every fifth day. At this writing, there is no cure.

Medical supplies are insufficient to cope with the widening waves of cases.

Intensive-care units are on the verge, and beyond, of being overwhelmed.

Testing is inadequate to the task of identifying the extent of infection, much less reversing its spread. A successful vaccine could be 12 to 18 months away.

The U.S. administration has done a solid job in avoiding immediate catastrophe.

The ultimate test will be whether the virus's spread can be arrested and then reversed in a manner and at a scale that maintains public confidence in Americans' ability to govern themselves.

The crisis effort, however vast and necessary, must not crowd out the urgent task of launching a parallel enterprise for the transition to the post-coronavirus order.

Leaders are dealing with the crisis on a largely national basis, but the virus's society-dissolving effects do not recognize borders.

While the assault on human health will—hopefully—be temporary, the political and economic upheaval it has unleashed could last for generations. No country, not even the U.S., can in a purely national effort overcome the virus. Addressing the necessities of the moment must ultimately be coupled with a global collaborative vision and program.

If we cannot do both in tandem, we will face the worst of each.

"I'M HERE
AT A MOMENT
WHEN THE OPPORTUNITY
TO BUILD A
CONSTRUCTIVE, PEACEFUL
WORLD ORDER IS VERY GREAT."
