COVID-19: THE GREAT RESET

KLAUS SCHWAB
THIERRY MALLERET

In this messy new world defined by a shift towards multipolarity and intense competition for influence, the conflicts or tensions will no longer be driven by ideology (with the partial and limited exception of radical Islam), but spurred by nationalism and the competition for resources. If no one power can enforce order, our world will suffer from a "global order deficit". Unless individual nations and international organizations succeed in finding solutions to better collaborate at the global level, we risk entering an "age of entropy" in which retrenchment, fragmentation, anger and parochialism will increasingly define our global landscape, making it less intelligible and more disorderly.

While conventional military conflicts between large powers appear to be out of fashion — along with formal declarations of war — Russia has been waging a silent, "hybrid war" against the U.S. for years. Russian President Vladimir Putin's goal: to influence American minds. NATIONAL REVIEW (12-9-20)

In the 2016 epilogue to his book The Grand Chessboard, Zbigniew Brzezinski (co-founder of the Trilateral Commission) wrote in the last paragraph that the world needs an America that 'seeks to develop a more multipolar world order.'

"The process of the formation of multipolarity is irrevocable. History cannot be stopped. However, we are witnessing attempts to slow down this process. Recently, our Western colleagues have realized that it was impossible to completely restore a unipolar world, as craved by Americans and their allies," -Sergei Lavrov (12-12-20)

If the Neocons and the Democrats (symbolized by Moab and Ammon) represent the unipolar globalists, then their opponents would have to (by process of elimination) be the multipolar globalists.

These two warring factions of internationalists with Kenites in leadership positions on both sides are collectively the 'he goat' written of in Daniel 8 which is symbolic of the shadow government of the sons of Cain.

"Nation shall rise against nation" as in the goat fig nation shall (through Edom) rise against the goat fig nation (Ammon & Moab) which is how the great horn of the he goat (the United Nations) will be 'broken' after which the new world order emerges once Satan and his angels are cast to earth at the woe of the fifth trumpet at the beginning of the five month long hour of temptation.

Only then does the one world political system written of in Revelation 13 (the new world order) come into being which then receives a 'deadly wound' after which Satan appears as the false christ and the new world order becomes a one world religious system at the woe of the sixth trumpet.

U.S. PRESSURE ON INDIA IN MILITARY AREA AIMS AT ESTABLISHING UNIPOLAR WORLD

(urdupoint.com, 12-8-20)

(EXCERPT)

Western countries' pressure on India, including in military and technical cooperation, is designed to consolidate a unipolar world, Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov said on Tuesday.

According to the minister, the West led by the U.S. continues to promote a unipolar international order, while Russia and China oppose it. The US is currently attempting to drag India (Russia's close strategic partner) into such an order, the minister argued.

E.U. FOREIGN POLICY IS ENTIRELY U.S. CENTERED

(TASS.com, 12-8-20)

(EXCERPT)

The European Union has given up attempts to play the role of one of the centers in a multipolar system and is entirely US-centered, Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov told a video conference meeting of the Russian International Affairs Council on Tuesday.

"...there is every sign the European Union has given up attempts to be one of the poles in a multipolar system, which is emerging objectively, and is entirely oriented toward the United States," he said.

'A prolonged phase of gradually expanding cooperation with key Eurasian partners, both stimulated and arbitrated by America, can also help to foster the preconditions for an eventual upgrading of the existing and increasingly antiquated UN structures. A new distribution of responsibilities and privileges can then take into account the changed realities of global power, so drastically different from those of 1945.'

Klaus Schwab: We need a new narrative for globalization

17 Mar 2017

Klaus Schwab

Founder and Executive Chairman, World Economic Forum

(EXCERPT)

The world is at a historic crossroads. Market extremism, often labelled neoliberalism, which has shaped our national and global policies for the past three decades, has become a toxic fuel for the stuttering engine for global growth. It has also generated polluting side effects that are no longer tolerated by large portions of society.

Yet market-driven globalization has lifted over a billion people out of poverty and has been an overall driver of improved standards of living. In its present form, however, it is no longer fit for purpose in our current – nor particularly our future – context.

What are the reasons?

First, the global economic system has moved from focusing on meeting the needs and aspirations of crucial segments of society who feel they are living in a precarious situation, to focusing on the optimization of the system itself. As such, individuals want to regain control of their livelihoods and seek out more than material satisfaction. People are searching for meaning and purpose in their lives – lives that are not solely defined by economics and business, but which also encompass social and cultural affinities. Many people feel spiritually isolated in a globalized world and long for a socio-economic context in which greater emphasis is placed again on shared values and less on impersonal rules.

In addition, the legitimacy of a purely market-driven global economy was undermined by a growing number of systemic challenges, such as:

- The transition from a unipolar to a multipolar world, and consequently, to a world with competing societal concepts which challenge “Western” thinking;
- Market power, corrupt practices and speculative financial practices distorting the fairness of markets and the process of real long-term value creation;
- Transformation of production processes, emphasizing automation, capital and innovation over manual, and soon intellectual, labour;
- The serious threat to the preservation and regeneration of our environment, caused by the excessive use and erosion of our natural resources.

December 2020 cemented the Multi-Polar World

Republic of the Philippines

January 4, 2021

(EXCERPT)

THE European Union and China signed a historic trade pact last December 27, 2020, a trade deal that is as significant as the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP) cake, which took 10 years to bake and whose icing was completed only last November 15, 2020.

History will record the last month of 2020 as the pivotal moment that finally shifted the globe from its 20th Century US-centered unipolar orientation to the evolving and congealing multi-polar world championed by China and Russia over the past two decades.

This is now happening with rapidity, taking advantage of the presidential transition on January 20th, 2021 from Trump to the new US Biden administration. And the intention of the EU and ASEAN+5 is also clear, i.e., to set the parameters before the US can throw its weight around again.

EDITOR'S NOTE:

The events written of in Revelation 13 are entirely yet future and do not begin until the woe of the 5th trumpet when Satan and his angels (Daniel's fourth beast) are cast to earth which is when the lion, the bear, the leopard and Daniel's fourth beast all rise up together at the same time in a one world political system (the new world order) which then receives a deadly wound after which Satan appears as the antichrist (which means 'instead-of-Christ') and the one world political system at that time becomes a one world religious system at the woe of the 6th trumpet.
